ARTICLE 5 – GOVERNANCE

5.1 Council

5.1.1 Composition of Council

Membership of Council is comprised of:

- (a) 6 Councillors elected in accordance with section 5.2 of these By-Laws, of whom:
 - (i) 3 are Non-Employer RDTs or DTs
 - (ii) 3 are Employer RDTs or DTs.
- (b) Two Councillors will be public members appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council in accordance with the Act; and
- (c) The immediate past President as an ex officio member.

5.1.2 Authority of Council

The governing body of the College is the Council. Council is empowered to:

- (a) set policies, directives or guidelines for the guidance of members, officers and officials of the College that conform to the Act, the Regulation and the Bylaws;
- (b) appoint officials as set out in Article 5.1.4;
- (c) create standing, ad hoc and other special committees as may be necessary to assist the Council in carrying out its duties;
- (d) enter into agreements including those with other institutions and societies;
- (e) oversee all financial transactions and ensuring a written financial statement is submitted at each regular meeting of Council;
- (f) oversee all financial transactions and ensure a written financial statement and projected budget for the upcoming year are submitted annually at a Regulated Members meeting or by electronic communication to their last known contact information.
- (g) deposit or invest operating monies in any of the following: a Canadian chartered bank, trust company, treasury branch, credit union, securities of the government of Canada or the government of any province of Canada;
- (h) invest the funds of the College in such investments and securities as the Council may see fit subject to Article 9;
- (i) grant awards, bursaries, grants, per diems or other allowances as determined by Council;
- (j) delegate authority and responsibility in writing for implementation of College policies, directives or guidelines to the Executive Director or Registrar; and
- (k) take any other action that is required by relevant legislation.

5.1.3 Decisions of Council

- (a) Decisions of Council shall be made as follows:
 - (i) at a Council meeting, by a vote of a majority of those present and voting at a meeting;
 - (ii) during a telephone conference, by a vote of a majority to those members participating in the telephone conference and who vote; or
 - (iii) at a vote held by mail, facsimile, or electronic means, by a vote of a majority of those participating in the vote;
- (b) an ex-officio member of Council shall not vote;
- (c) all Councillors, including the President, present at the Council meeting shall each be entitled to one vote;
- (d) any 3 Councillors may by resolution in writing require the President to convene a special meeting of Council. The requisition shall state the object of the meeting so required; and
- (e) if the President does not cause a meeting to be held within fourteen days of the requisition being received by the President, the requisitionists may themselves convene a meeting, by providing not less than seven days notice in writing to all Councillors.

5.1.4 Executive Committee of Council

The Executive Committee of Council of the College shall consist of:

- (a) the President, who shall preside over all meetings of the College and the Council;
- (b) the Vice-President; and
- (c) the Treasurer

All Executive Committee members must be Regulated Members in good standing and be elected by the Council.

The Executive Committee of Council shall carry out, along with the Executive Director, the day to day business of the College as delegated by the Council subject to:

- (a) the Bylaws and policies of the College; and
- (b) any specific directive given to it by the Council

The Executive Committee of Council may authorize expenditures set forth in the annual budget, and it shall report its activity regularly to Council.

5.2 Election to Council

- (a) The election of Councillors shall be held at such time and place as decided by Council.
- (b) All Regulated Members in good standing are deemed to be qualified electors.
- (c) Elections will take place every 3 years on or before May 1st.

5.2.1 The Registrar, under the direction of the Nomination and Election Committee, no later than 60 days before the date set for the election of the Councillors, shall forward, by electronic communication to their last known contact information, to each Regulated Member in good standing;

- (a) a notice of the time and date fixed for the election of Councillors; and
- (c) a call for nominations, including a blank nomination form and the closing time and date for nominations.

5.2.2 In order for a nomination to be valid it shall be returned to the Nomination and Election Committee in the care of the College office so as to reach the College office no later than the date and time set out in the call for nominations.

5.2.3 In total, three (3) Councillors will be Non-Employer RDTs or DTs and three (3) Councillors will be Employer RDTs or DTs. The Nomination and Election Committee shall determine the Councillors based on the number of votes received by each candidate. In the event of a tie vote, the Chief Electoral Officer shall cast the deciding vote.

All Regulated Members of the College who are in good standing as set out in Article 4.2 and are residents of Alberta, are eligible for nomination as a Councillor by three qualified electors. Each qualified elector may nominate only one Regulated Member to each vacancy.

5.2.4 Appointment of Nomination and Election Committee

- (a) The Council shall appoint a Regulated Member in good standing as Chief Electoral Officer to oversee votes by the membership. The Chief Electoral Officer shall follow the policies established by Council, as necessary for governing any member vote.
- (b) The Chief Electoral Officer shall appoint at least two (2) Regulated Members in good standing and may appoint one (1) Public Member to serve as Electoral Officers for any vote. This shall constitute the Nomination and Election Committee.

5.3 Voting

5.3.1 The Registrar, under the direction of the Nomination and Election Committee, not later than ten (10) days before the date fixed for the election, shall forward by email a link to a designated web site to every qualified elector on the General Register which will contain a statement of the number of vacancies to be filled and a ballot containing the names of all persons duly nominated for election..

- b) Ballots shall be received through a secure web site hosted by an external provider designated by the Registrar that ensures anonymity and which is both certified and secure.
- c) Upon holding of the election, all ballots shall be checked against the list of eligible voters and electronically counted through a secure web site hosted by an external provider designated by the Registrar before the hour fixed for the holding of the election.
- d) Regulated Members will be notified of the electronic results as soon as possible following the close of voting.
- e) The Registrar shall ensure that the ballots are retained for a period of sixty (60) days and at the expiration of such time, if no proceedings are in the meantime taken to set aside the election, shall have the ballot data deleted.

5.3.2 In the electronic voting process any accidental or technical oversight, or omission in the giving of a notice or any other document required under these Bylaws does not invalidate any election result as determined by the Nomination and Election Committee.

5.4 Councillor Vacancy

5.4.1 A Councillor may at any time resign by letter directed to the Council and in the event of resignation or in the event of any vacancy by death, incompetency or otherwise, a majority of the remaining Councillors may appoint any Regulated Member in good standing of the College, who is a resident of Alberta, to fill the vacancy. The replacement Councillor will only fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term of the replaced Councillor. However, the replacement Councillor will be eligible to run for re-election, subject to Article 5.7.1.

5.4.2 A Council member's position on the Council is vacated if for any reason the Council member's Practice Permit as a Regulated Member is suspended or cancelled or the Council member is convicted of an indictable offence.

5.4.3 If the required number of members of the Council is not nominated or elected, the newly elected Council may appoint any Regulated Member in good standing who is a resident of Alberta to fill the vacancy for the duration of the term.

5.5 Removal From Council

5.5.1 Pursuant to a resolution made by a Councillor, a Councillor may be removed from the Council by a two-thirds majority vote of the other members of the Council after the affected Councillor is provided with not less than thirty (30) days written notice of the removal resolution. The said resolution may be voted on by the other members of Council in person, by telephone conference call or by email or any other electronic method as set out in the removal resolution.

- 5.5.2 A Councillor will be automatically removed as a Councillor:
- a) If the Councillor falls into arrears greater than thirty (30) days in payment of any costs, fees, levies, dues and assessments required by the College or becomes insolvent;
 - b) If the conduct of the Councillor is found to constitute unprofessional conduct under the Act, that Councillor may be removed from the Council by a simple majority vote of the other members of the Council.
 - c) If a Councillor is absent from three (3) consecutive meetings of the Council without prior written notice and without proper justification, that Councillor may be removed from the Council by a simple majority vote of the other members of the Council.

5.6 Meetings of Council

Council shall meet on a regular basis for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meeting and proceedings as required pursuant to the provisions of the Act, Regulation and these Bylaws.

- 5.6.1 The President or three (3) members of Council may call meetings of the Council at any time deemed necessary or advisable.
- 5.6.2 Any meeting of the Council may be held at such times and places and in such manner as the Council shall determine, including by means of telephone, electronic or other communication facilities that will permit all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other.
- 5.6.3 The President shall Chair and preside over all meetings of the Council. In the President's absence the Vice-President shall assume the Chair. In the event that neither the President nor Vice-President are in attendance the Councillors present shall choose one of their members to act as Chair.
- 5.6.4 A quorum for meeting of the Council is four (4) Councillors of which 3 are elected and one (1) is a Public Member.
- 5.6.5 Each Councillor shall have one vote regardless of the number of titles or positions held.
- 5.6.6 The Chair, with the approval of the majority of those Councillors at the meeting, may invite other individuals to take part in the discussions on pertinent business at any meeting of the Council.
- 5.6.7 In the event of a tie vote, the vote of the Chair shall decide the vote.

5.7 Term of Office

- 5.7.1 The term of office for Councillors shall be three (3) years, with all duties and responsibilities commencing at the first meeting of Council following the election.

- 5.7.2 A Councillor shall be eligible for re-election to a maximum of two (2) terms or 6 years in total. A Councillor, having served the maximum allowable period of 2 terms, shall not be eligible for re-election for a minimum of one year.
- 5.7.3 At the first meeting following an election of Councillors the Council shall elect a President, Vice President, and Treasurer, who shall remain so until their term of office shall be complete and act as an Executive Committee of Council. Once elected as a member of the Executive Committee of Council that person shall remain as a member of the Executive Committee of Council until their term as a Councillor is complete. At each subsequent election of Councillors if there are any vacancies on the Executive Committee of Council the appropriate elections shall be held.
- 5.7.4 The immediate Past-President may continue to be an ex-officio Councillor for a one-year period after completion of the term of President.

ARTICLE 6 – DELEGATION

- 6.1 Subject to section 19 and 20 of the Act:
- (a) Council may, by resolution, delegate any powers and duties under the Act, the Regulation and these By-Laws to one or more persons or committees.
 - (b) A person or committee to whom a power or duty is given under the Act or these By-Laws may by letter delivered to the College and stating the delegates name and contact information delegate the power or duty to one or more persons or committees subject to the written approval by Council.
- 6.2 As soon as practicable following an election or a vacancy of these positions, the Council shall choose individuals to fill the following positions:
- (a) a Complaints Director;
 - (b) a Hearings Director;
 - (c) a Registrar;
 - (d) a Privacy Officer; and

- (e) an Executive Director

The Complaints Director and the Hearings Director may not be the same person, nor may any person be delegated the powers of both the Complaints Director and the Hearings Director.

6.2.1 The Council shall employ an Executive Director, who shall have charge and care of the day to day affairs of the College. He may act as Registrar and Complaints Director if appointed, or, in the appropriate circumstances and with the concurrence of the Council, delegate such authority.

6.3 The College shall keep an Officials Directory containing the names and contact information of:

- (a) the Councillors and delegates;
- (b) the Complaints Director and any delegate;
- (c) the Hearings Director and any delegate;
- (d) the Registrar or any delegate;
- (e) the Privacy Officer and any delegate; and
- (f) the Executive Director and any delegate;

The Officials Directory must be made available to the public during regular business hours.

6.4 Only Council may terminate the positions, or any delegates of those positions, set forth in Section 6.2.

6.5 Only Council may appoint or terminate professional service providers to the College, including but not limited to the College's Chartered Accountant and Legal Counsel.

ARTICLE 7 – MEETINGS OF THE COLLEGE

7.1 Meetings of the College

The Council may call a meeting of the College at any time Council considers advisable. Council may fix the time and place thereof, and designate the notice to be given to the Regulated Members.

7.1.1 Only Councillors of Council, including Public Members, and Regulated Members may vote at meetings of the College.

7.1.2 A quorum at all meetings of the College shall consist of 6% of Regulated Members who are personally present. If there is not quorum within thirty minutes of the time specified in the notice, Council shall be authorized to conduct matters of business not requiring a vote which was to have been addressed at such meeting. Council will then be required to call a further meeting of the College in a timely fashion.

7.1.3 If a Regulated Member wishes to raise an issue at a meeting of the College the Regulated Member may bring the matter forward for discussion purposes only. Discussion at the meeting does not affect the ability of the Council, the Executive Council or the officers of the College from conducting business of the College.

7.1.4 Twenty percent (20%) of the Regulated Members in good standing can requisition a meeting of the College by advising the President of the College in writing.

7.2 Parliamentary Authority

Unless otherwise provided for herein, meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the latest edition of Roberts Rules of Order.

ARTICLE 8 – FINANCE AND OTHER MANAGEMENT MATTERS

8.1 Registered Office

The Registered Office of the College and the principle place of business shall be located in Edmonton, Alberta.

8.2 Finance and Auditing

8.2.1. The fiscal year of the College ends on December 31 of each year.

- 8.2.2 There must be an audit of the books, accounts, and records of the College at least once each year.
